

Delta Psi Sorors Rally Around the Metro Atlanta Community

Kicking off a new Eta Phi Beta Sorority year with several great community service projects, Sorors of Delta Psi gave back to the metro Atlanta community. Supporting back to school projects and presenting a donation to We Speak For Ourselves, LLC, a residential group home for developmentally disabled citizens, began the 2017-18 Sorority year on a high note.

Delta Psi Sorors volunteered three full days helping four first grade teachers get ready for a successful school year. Sorors rallied with donated school supplies from the chapter and helped teachers organize to get their class room ready for the little scholars beginning their first year at Beulah Elementary School in Douglassville Georgia. Delta Psi Sorors did not stop there, but continued the rally with a delivery of supplies contributed by the chapter to Frickett Elementary school in Atlanta. Sorors Patsy Pearson Harvey, Barbara Triggs and Renee Fletcher delivered bags of school supplies to the grateful administration staff.
